GETTING SEATED BEURSSCHOUWBURG

The screenroom is located on the first floor, which you can get to by going up a staircase (about 20 steps), recogniseable by its beige carpet.
People wishing to use the lift (in the red hall) in order to gain access to the screenroom are kindly requested to ask for assistance at the welcome desk on the ground floor. A member of staff will accompany you.

Once you are on the right floor, you will enter the screenroom via a ramp. Spaces can be made available for wheelchair users. The Beursschouwburg team would be grateful if wheelchair users could let them know in advance of their visit, so they can offer the best possible spot.

Priority seats:
2 to 3 seats without armrests will be available in the front row. Almost all seats in the front row will be clearly marked with small signs as priority seats for anyone who needs to leave quickly, requires a seat without armrests, or needs a clear view of the subtitles, among other access needs.

FINDING THE TOILETS

The toilets are on the first floor and can be reached via the stairs with beige carpet. If you need to use the wheelchair-friendly toilet on the first floor, please ask a staff member at reception for assistance so they can unlock the lift for you.
